Shepherd Honors Mothers

All twenty-one mothers present were recognized and honored during the morning worship service at Shepherd on Sunday. Special recognition and prizes were given to the most senior (sounds better than oldest, when you are talking about the ladies), the youngest, and the mother with the most children present in the service. The youngest mother honors went to CheyAnna Peterson; there was a tie for the most senior mother, between Suzy Coleman and Margie Horton. Van Coleman had the most of her children present. Attendance was good (See the box on the left) in all services. Sunday Morning Pastor Coleman spoke on the Book of Ruth about "How God has plans for us that is beyond our imagination. Sunday night, he spoke from Galatians 6:7-9, "Do not be deceived, God cannot be mocked." "A man reaps what he sows." His message was "We can reap the harvest if we don't give up."

Just Thinking – Well Sunday was Mother’s Day and we pray that you honored your mother personally or in memory.

Savon was up, like the woman in Proverbs 31:15 (NCV), “She gets up while it is still dark and prepares food for her family,” before we left for church. What a lunch she had prepared.

After church, we had all gathered around the dining room table, when the older twin, Tem, brought in a gift bag and wished her a “Happy Mother’s Day.” The bag looked very familiar to her, as our daughter, Kaye had presented her present to her in the same bag earlier. As she started emptying the gift bag, she pulled out a present that Tem had given her years before, something that Kaye had given her in the past; also some very old potpourri, and so forth. He had apparently gone through the house looking for stuff to re-gift, that was of no cost to him. I guess he was thinking about that old Mothers Day song, “M is for the many things she gave me...” Finally in the bottom of the bag was the gift certificate for the nail salon that she likes. The kids had rather play jokes on Mom than eat at times.

However, it’s no joke, when God wants us to give to him. We quickly offer him changes or stuff that costs us little, hoping that he will give us what we really want. You may fool yourself, you may fool others, but you can’t fool God. “You have not lied to men but to God.” (Acts 5:4 NIV).

I will give Tem credit; he did go into the nail salon to purchase the gift certificate. He says he will never do that again.

Family Camp Coming Week of June 14th

Family Camp will be the week of Sunday, June 14th through Sunday, June 21. We will have a morning service and baptism at Shepherd that morning, then the evening service, and Wednesday night services will meet at the campground in Batesburg. This year will be a different from the past, as the last service will be the Sunday morning service. This will allow those going to the General Assembly in Orlando an early start

No Tuesday Happenings Next Week—Save This Edition

Please save this edition of Shepherd Tuesday Happenings. I will be on the road again, so there will be no newsletter next week. The scheduled events for that week are included in today’s edition. The next Tuesday Happenings will be on Tuesday, May 26. — Editor

Finally — Some Moms become

Grandmas. Have you noticed how Grandmas have changed over the years?

In the dim and distant past, when life's tempo wasn't so fast, Grandma used to rock and knit, crochet, tat and baby sit. When the kids were in a jam, they could always call on Gram. But today she's in the gym, exercising to keep slim.

She's checking the web or surfing the net, sending some e-mail or in the pool getting wet. Nothing seems to stop or block her, now that Grandma's off her rocker. That’s all for now; see you in Church and Sunday School.-JTF
