Set Clocks - Time Changes Sunday

Daylight Savings Time officially ends at 2:00 am on November 1, this Sunday. That means that you will get back the hour's sleep that you lost last March. Just remember to set all of your clocks, watches, and other time pieces (including the stove, microwave, thermostat and auto) back one hour at that time or when you go to bed Saturday night.

Next Board Meeting

The next meeting of the Church Board will be Tuesday, Nov. 3 at 7:00 pm in the fellowship hall.

Minutes from the last meeting have been distributed.

Hey, that dog's hot - Jeremy serves some hot dogs to Cheyanna during the Octoberfest cookout at the Pastor's house last Friday night.

Shepherd October All-Church Cook-out and Trunk or Treat was a success enjoyed by many in spite of rain threat

Just Thinking - Are you on FaceBook, MySpace, or Twitter? These are just some of the “social networking” sites on the internet these days.

Now Miz Savon got on FB, that’s FaceBook for the uninformed, a while before she lured me into this world of “What are you doing now” that I thought was either for the texting teens or nobody’s business. Boy was I surprised, there are all ages on there, wanting to know what I am doing. Now, even when I watch the 11:00 o’clock news, Ben and Judy, after about ten minutes, declare, “That’s all the news, now we want to hear from you” on FaceBook or Twitter. Wow, I didn’t know that they cared what I thought.

It’s not all bad, it’s a good place to share pictures and make contact with people that you don’t get to see often or another messaging outlet. After I got somewhat confident in my on-line socializing skills; I got brave enough to open a Twitter account, so I could “Twitter” all of my friends, but alas I found I could not “Twitter” my followers, I had to “Tweet” them. It was too much for me, I dropped the account after 2 days.

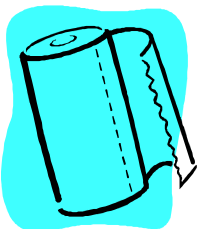

Communication is challenging these days to say the least; isn’t it great that when we want to let God know how we feel, we don’t have to “tweet” Him. He’s always there, He always cares, and unlike some of my on-line friends, He always answers. Like Job says, “God always answers, one way or another, even when people don’t recognize his presence”. (Job 33:14 The Message)

See you in Church, Sunday School, or in the next Shepherd Tuesday Happenings...Oh, I almost forgot; on FaceBook.

Trunk or Treat from the back of Mr. Larry’s car. (Left) Taylor and Jacob load up; while Porter (Right) fills his bucket.

Finally - A pastor friend put sanitary hot air hand dryers in the rest rooms at his church and after two weeks took them out.

I asked him why and he confessed that they worked fine but when he went in there he saw a sign that read:

"For a sample of this week's sermon, push the button."
