The Finish Line Almost In Sight

The finish line is almost in sight as we race toward the goal of ten new, round tables for the Fellowship Hall as a Christmas Gift to the Church.

As of Sunday, it appears that we lack just a little more to be able to purchase the new furniture, which will make it much more attractive and a better arrangement for gatherings. The tables are $100 each plus tax, and families have given all or part toward them. We will keep you posted.

Thanks you to Rev. John and Charlotte Sanders for being with us for two good services Sunday, while Pastor Coleman was on vacation.

Thank you to all of the Shepherd members and friends that did something special for our family during Pastor's Appreciation Month.

Church Board Meeting Tonight

The Shepherd Church Board will have it's monthly meeting tonight at 7 pm in the Fellowship Hall.

Not only will the routine church business be conducted; the board will receive a year-to-date financial update and review.

Pastor Coleman will chair the meeting. The board members for this year are Chad Branham, NYI/Trustee; Janet Ellisor, Music/Steward; Larry Ellisor, Sunday School/NMI/Steward; John Frierson, Secretary/Trustee; and Troy Whitaker, Building & Grounds/Trustee. Lorrie Whitaker is Church Treasurer.

Just Thinking – Miz Savon got a phone call from Tem this week. A former roommate and an old friend had passed away. We had lost touch with him over the past few years.

When Tem moved from Texas, we lost track of him. We heard that he was living at different places, but he never wrote. I can say that he led a good life, until recently. However, he was one of those personalities that did not hesitate to let you know just how he felt. Oh he could be finicky, which cannot be all bad, because I have described myself that way frequently. He would sulk and not speak at times, other times he would go nose to nose with you. Then the next thing you know he wanted a hug.

To that special friend, I am reminded of the words of Jacob, “I don't deserve all the love and loyalty you've shown me.”

The late commentator, Paul Harvey, used to regale his audiences by telling some little or unknown fact, then leading them to “The Rest of the Story”.

You may have guessed by now that this friend was furry, moved around on 4 feet, and would “meow” to make his presence known. None the less he will be missed – Rambo Frierson, circa 1996 – 2009, rest in peace. May your bowl and water dish always be full & your litter box always be clean.

Now, YOU know the rest of the story. See you next time.

Your Missionary Christmas Offering

Thank you for your generosity in the loose offering on October 18 & 25 for a Christmas present for our missionaries. The total giving for this special cause was $87.50.

Finally - An elderly woman walked into the local country church. The friendly usher greeted her at the door and helped her up the flight of steps,

"Where would you like to sit?" he asked politely.

"The front row please," she answered.

"You really don't want to do that," the usher said

"The pastor is really boring."

"Do you happen to know who I am?" the woman inquired.

"No." he said.

"I'm the pastor's mother," she replied indignantly.

"Do you know who I am?" he asked.

"No." she said.
